

III Colloquium Paths of Music People-to-People Experience Itinerary September 25 – October 2, 2016

The Cultural Center for the Arts “Benny More” and the University of Cienfuegos, in collaboration with the “Jose Marti” National Library and the cultural institutions of Cienfuegos convene the 3rd Colloquium “Along the Paths of Music” to take place in Cienfuegos, Cuba. The three-day colloquium is dedicated to rock and pop music of the 1960’s and 70’s, considered by many scholars to be the “rock boom.” Founded on the old rural blues of African Americans and later the white middle class, Rock and pop music transcended popular dance music to become a cultural phenomenon around the World. Cuba was no exception. In addition to the Colloquium, this People-to-People experience is designed to provide you exposure to other varieties of Cuban Music and culture. What follows is a preliminary itinerary of encounters to balance out your total experience.
